AGREEMENT ON COOPERATION

N 45-M

between

Samara State University of Social Sciences and Education (Russia) and the Department of Genetics in Harvard Medical School (USA)

Samara State University of Social Sciences and Education and the Department of Genetics at Harvard Medical School, wishing to enhance relations between the two and to develop academic, cultural and scientific interchange in the areas of education, research, and other activities, agree to cooperate and work together.

Any specific program shall be subject to mutual consent, availability of funds, and the approval of each institution. Such may include:

- Exchange of faculty members
- Exchange of students
- Joint research projects
- Joint conferences
- Joint publications

The terms of such mutual assistance and cooperation shall be discussed and agreed upon in writing prior to the initiation of any particular program or activity.

This agreement shall enter into force upon signature by the contracting parties and shall remain in effect for an initial period of three years. Thereafter it shall be automatically renewed from year to year; however, after the initial period either institution may terminate the agreement at the end of a given year by giving six months notice in writing of such intent.
