IN THE INTEREST of educational cooperation to contribute to the international and intercultural education of peoples, Xi'an International University of the People's Republic of China and Samara State Academy of Social Sciences and Humanities express their intent to reach an agreement to develop cultural and educational relationship as sister-colleges.

- I. Xi'an International University and Samara State Academy of Social Sciences and Humanities will work together to attempt to establish a relationship which allows for the mutual transfer of educational materials, institutional publications, course literature and instructional information.
- II. Xi'an International University and Samara State Academy of Social Sciences and Humanities will explore faculty and student exchange opportunities and attempt to seek ways to encourage the faculty members of the sister-college to participate in cultural projects in the hosting country.
- III. Xi'an International University and Samara State Academy of Social Sciences and Humanities will consider the hosting of cultural events from the other country which may enrich or expand educational and cultural understanding and experiences of faculty and students of the sister-colleges.

HEREINWITH, in an age when mankind has been brought together through technology, this proposed relationship will serve to bring the people of diverse cultures closer through our pursuits of educational ideals and human understanding.

In witness whereof, the parties have signed this Letter of Intent on the 6th day of October, 2015.
